The Juror for this exhibit:

Maddie Quinn is an artist from Pennsylvania. Her work investigates her hometown by exploring her relationships with the people and places around it. Maddie is interested in ways to blur the boundaries between painting/drawing/photography, while creating high contrast black and white artwork with influences from personal experiences, local stories, and psychological phenomena. She received her MFA in Art with a concentration in drawing and painting from Penn State University in 2022, her MA in Art with a concentration in painting from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in 2019, and her BA in Visual Art Studies from Penn State Altoona in 2018.

NEW: You asked for it and we're delivering ! More Prizes!

Seven $100 prizes and $200 for best of show.
